Elite Seduction Labs
Miami’s Thoughts

Arash and Zan are my favorite pick up artists in a sea of pick up artists that you think might be great guys but are really royal douchebags and scammers.

I’m really picky-choosy when it comes to what I ingest spiritually and if a pick up artist doesn’t have the balls to create a new, unseen chapter in this game that we play than their contribution is a waste of time.

I personally borrow some of my game from popular methods and nothing is completely original in this world, but these guys have painted their own place and painted their own flags in this game for what they represent and they live and die by it and I love them for it.

I don’t think this is a book that as much as it is a forum for me to take some of the most inspirational ways of seeing the world and offering it I a package to my fans and friends... way up there with the most important people in my life. These are the principals and philosophies that make me tick.

Arash Dibazar

Although Arash doesn’t promote himself as any type of spiritual healer on his sales letter, I definitely believe he is. He is one of the most humble, dedicated seducers in the game, if not the most and his contributions to the pick up artist community will literally change the game as we know it. Any pick up artist who isn’t a black ops spy or a triple black belt (most of Arash’s principals are very deeply ingrained into the lifestyles of these characters) can learn a lesson or 2 on the psychology of being the best from Arash Dibazar, of Seductive Instinct. Miami PUA

One of my favorite aspects of life is exploring unexplored territory, studying pain and it's metamorphosis into excitement and passion. Discovering the lines drawn by society and asking myself the purpose for this line and if moving it will increase a woman's sexual pleasure and ease of walking through her life. My job is to analyze terrain that psychologists know about and never dare speak because if they do, they could lose their licenses. I enjoy analyzing the forbidden.
